COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course seeks to cover current development and current issues in the asset management and private banking industry. The issues identified may be related to new business opportunities, new risk areas, new development affecting the AMPB market/industry.

Course assessment is based on group research report and the group presentation of the report. Students are to pick a topic of current issue and research on the topic. Evaluation is based on the quality of the research and the relevancy of the identified opportunity/risk to the development of the AMPB industry.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. The course is to provide a practical understanding of the current opportunities and risks in the asset management and private banking business.

2. Students are expected to apply their research skills and critically analyze the background to the identified issue, its implications to the industry/market and how the industry should capture the opportunities or reduce the risk.

3. Students’ interviewing skills, discussion, debating, presentation and teamwork skills should be developed.

4. Students’ writing skills in a research paper should also be developed.

5. Students who are interested in a career in the AMPB industry will gain insights to the current happenings in the industry and enhance their ability to understand the industry dynamics.

COURSE POLICY (e.g. plagiarism, academic honesty, attendance, etc.)

Academic Honesty

“Plagiarism is defined as the unacknowledged use, as one’s own, of work of another person, whether or not such work has been published. It is a very serious academic offence and the University does not allow or tolerate plagiarism. Any student who commits plagiarism is liable to disciplinary action which can result in serious consequences – including expulsion from the University.

You are strongly advised to read the booklets “What is Plagiarism” and “Plagiarism and How to Avoid It” and to consult your teachers if you have any questions about how to avoid plagiarism.”

Cheating

Cheating is another very serious academic offence. Any student who commits cheating on homework assignments or midterm or final examination will receive a grade “F” for the whole course. In addition, the case will be reported to the relevant Board of Examiners and/or the Senate of the University for further actions.

Class Attendance and Work Load

To maximize learning experience, students are strongly recommended to attend all the lectures, submit report on time and participate actively in class and in the preparation of the research project. The work load of this course is quite heavy and students are expected to spend at least 133 contact/study hours as described above.

Class Conduct

The guiding principle governing class conduct is mutual respect. All mobile phones must be switched off or on silent mode. No eating or drinking is allowed. Students should not disturb others in class.

ADDITIONAL COURSE INFORMATION (e.g. e-learning platforms & materials, penalty for late assignments, etc.)

Penalty for Late Submission of Assignments and Term Project

Any late submission of homework assignments, cases, or the Term Project will be subject to a 50% penalty deduction of the respective total marks per calendar day after 11:59 pm of the due date, unless prior written permission is obtained from the Instructor under special circumstances, e.g. medical leave.
